

The Litigation process

Dispute Resolution

For most people, litigation will not be familiar. This guide sets out the processes that may be necessary for your claim. We guide and assist you through all the processes mentioned.

Settlement

- The majority of cases are resolved by negotiations either between the solicitors or at a structured mediation. Settlements save costs and avoid the risks of litigation.
- The courts encourage parties to settle matters and there may be adverse consequences for a party who refuses a reasonable offer of settlement and fails to achieve a better result at trial.

Barristers

- During your case, it may be necessary to obtain the expert legal opinion of a barrister.
- It will also usually be a Barrister who will present your case at court.